AMUSEMENTS

"CHECKERS" AT THE BUTLER

TONIGHT.

"Checkers" is a big special production taken from the racing melodrama that was a tremendous success on the legitimate stage for many years. It will be the head-line attraction at the Butler tonight. The story is a sensational one, having to do with race horse plots and race track touts. It ends with one of the most thrilling race track scenes ever witnessed on the screen. Here it is: The scene is a race track, the horses are at the post, and after three false starts, get under way. In the home stretch two of them fight for the lead, nose and nose. In one of the greatest racing scenes ever witnessed an unknown horse, ridden by a girl jockey, dashes under the wire a winner. This is but one of the many thrilling scenes. It is a masterful production, rich in romance and prodigious in wholesome sensation. It carries a strong heart interest throughout and will appeal to everyone who sees it. It is doing a phenomenal business throughout the entire country, packing theatres and breaking attendance records everywhere, so do not make any arrangements that will interfere with your seeing one of the best liked pictures that has been made in a long, long time.

The regular matinee will be given at 1:30 and in addition a children's special matinee will be given at 3:30 at a special price of 11c. To give all the children an opportunity of seeing this picture without interfering with their school work.

LUTHERAN SERVICES.

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. R. H. Menzel of Trinity Lutheran church at Gardnerville, will conduct services at the Presbyterian church. His discourse will take reference to the great work of the reformation performed by Dr. Martin Luther. The thirty-first of October is observed as Reformation day in the Protestant church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

WOMEN LAWMAKERS.

(Correspondence of Associated Press) BERLIN, Oct. 6.—In all, 155 women have been elected to the various legislative bodies of Germany, out of a total of 2,339, and only seven small states are without them in their parliaments. The national assembly leads the list with thirty-eight, but the Prussian diet follows closely with twenty-one.

CROWN JEWELS ON THE MARKET

(Correspondence Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 6.—That crown jewels, the property of the house of Hapsburg, were offered for sale before the war, was revealed today by the appearance of a diamond broker before Judge Cluzel. It appears that the then reigning house of Austria had decided to part with a superb diamond necklace, the gift of Napoleon to Marie Louise at the birth of the king of Rome.

A French society woman was asked to negotiate the sale. She has instructions to operate with extreme caution, signing no bill of sale, giving no receipts. She appealed to a well-known diamond firm of southern France, depositing the jewels with them for safe keeping. The broker served in the war and now has returned. The society woman, however, claims that she received no accounting of the transaction. Since the armistice she says she has repeatedly called upon the broker to produce the necklace or the proceeds of the sale. This, she told Judge Cluzel today, he has failed to do.

The broker says he is holding the necklace as security for expenses, amounting to 30,000 francs, which he has incurred in his attempts to negotiate the sale.
